

Freelance Tutors

Hourly rate: Competitive Rate

The Trust is seeking dynamic, creative, and engaging individuals to join our pool of freelance tutors and trainers, working across our range of services to support learning, skills development and wellbeing.

You will have the passion and capability to support others to develop skills and improve their ability to fulfil their potential, ensuring a person-centred approach to meet individual needs. Prior experience of working with people with neurodiversities would be advantageous.

It is important that you have strong expertise and knowledge in your specific subject area and or practical experience to within an education of training service. We are particularly interested in tutors/trainers in the following subject areas:

- Mathematics and English tutors up to and including Higher Grade
- Digital/IT/gaming
- Horticulture
- Woodwork/Design
- Arts/Crafts/Pottery
- Cooking/baking/confectionary
- Photography/film/animation
- Creative writing
- Music

To apply, please send a tailored CV and covering letter to people@donaldsons.org.uk no later than Friday 25th June 2021.

For further details of the role and requirements, please see <https://www.donaldsons.org.uk/workwithus/>

